WEDNESDAY 25TH, MASS 355

354 WEDNESDAY 25TH, MORNING

I, the LORD, do all these things./ Let justice descend, O heavens, like dew from above,/ like gentle rain let the skies drop it down./ Let the earth open and salvation bud forth;/ let justice also spring up!/ I, the LORD, have created this.

Be it done according to your Word! (cf. Lk 1:38)

CANTICLE OF ZECHARIAH

(Text, back cover B)

The Just One has descended like dew from above;/ the earth has opened/ and the Savior has sprung up. (cf. Is 45:8)

INTERCESSIONS

By her example and her prayer, Mary leads us on the way to Christ, her Son, the Word of God made flesh for our salvation. Let us pray:

Christ, perfect day,

– enlighten a world that dwells in darkness and the shadow of death:

R Mary, the dawn, pray for us.

Christ, the mystic vine, – bring together in one all the branches of your Church and let her bear the fruit of life:

 \gtrless Mary, the root, pray for us.

Christ, the living bread, – feed the hungers of the world:

R Mary, the wheat, pray for us.

Christ, the vision blest, - keep our eyes fixed on you throughout this day:

 \approx Mary, the mirror, pray for us.

Personal intentions

Our Father....

O God, in the Incarnation of the Word, you have wrought a marvelous exchange: as he humbled himself to share in our humanity, so did he enable us to have a share in his divinity. Transform us, O God, according to your Word, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mass

Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord

The Annunciation heralds the beginning of our salvation. At Mary's obedient Fiat, humanity is wedded to divinity. The salvation our heart cries out for became flesh in Mary's womb. We are Christians because of what God announced to the Blessed Virgin Mary. "Since it cannot be bought, in order for this salvation to enter into us we need a humble heart, a docile heart, an obedient heart like Mary's" (Pope Francis). When we repeat the words of the angel by praying the Hail Mary, the Word of God germinates in our soul.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Heb 10:5, 7

The Lord said, as he entered the world:/ Behold, I come to do your will, O God.

GLORIA

COLLECT

O God, who willed that your Word should take on the reality of human flesh in the womb of the Virgin Mary, grant, we pray, that we, who confess our Redeemer to be God and man, may merit to become partakers even in his divine nature. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
