Pastor's Letter

National World Marriage Week

This coming Thursday we begin National Marriage Week, with Sunday, February 10 being World Marriage Day. "Every year, it is an opportunity to focus on building a culture of life and love that begins with promoting and defending marriage and the family" (Archbishop C. Chaput).

With family being essential to QofA's mission and vision, marriage is also very important and we want to highlight this celebration. Therefore there will be a blessing of married couples at Masses on Sunday, February 10th and a Holy Hour for couples on Monday, February 11 at 6:30 pm.

As we prepare for this celebration, today's readings give us good insight. The first reading and the Gospel remind us that "no prophet is accepted in his own native place" (Lk 4:24). The prophet telling the people what God commands will be fought against and suffer persecution and death.

The second reading is St. Paul's well known text about Christian love: "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous..." (1 Cor 13:4 ff). It is a text that everybody likes, inside and outside the Catholic Church. It expresses in a beautiful way the Church's teaching about human love, and even more, conjugal love.

Accordingly, the Church teaches that marriage is good news. She is at the service of the Gospel of Marriage and Family. She proclaims that "The Joy of Love experienced by families is also the joy of the Church" (Pope Francis, Amoris Laetitia #1). And when the Church proclaims this message, like in Nazareth's synagogue, "All spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth" (Lk 4:22).

However, the Church also teaches that "love requires truth" (Pope Francis, Lumen Fidei #26-27). We are celebrating Humanae Vitae's 50th anniversary. What happens when the Church, for example, teaches that contraception is intrinsically evil or marriage is a lifelong communion between a man and a woman opened to life? "When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury" (Lk 4:28).

Today we see how Gender Ideology is becoming a politically correct form of bigotry and intolerance. Whoever disagrees with this new dogma is outside of the law and guilty of wrongdoing.

We still have the refreshing images of the recent March for Life. Marriage is Good News. And we want to support our families and give them a home in which they will flourish and thrive. We want to support couples in their mission of bringing forth new lives to build up the earthly city and populate the heavenly Jerusalem. Queen of Apostles is a family of families, committed to help couples and families to be holy, and live out what St. Paul so beautifully stated: Love "rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things" (1 Cor 13:7-8).

Jesus: “Poor soul, I see that you suffer much and that you do not have even the strength to converse with Me. So I will speak to you. Even though your sufferings were very great, do not lose heart or give in to despondency. But tell Me, My child, who has dared to wound your heart? Tell Me about everything, be sincere in dealing with Me, reveal all the wounds of your heart. I will heal them, and your suffering will become a source of your sanctification.”

Holy Hour for Married and Engaged Couples

Monday, February 11 at 6:30 pm
Queen of Apostles Catholic Church

National Marriage Week is February 7-14. During this time, we focus prayerfully on building a culture of life and love that begins with supporting and promoting marriage and the family (USCCB).

To celebrate and recognize the Sacrament of Marriage, married and engaged couples are invited to pray a Holy Hour with Fr. Leopoldo. This Holy Hour is a moment of thanksgiving before the Blessed Sacrament for the beauty and the sanctity of the gift of Marriage.

Prayer for Married Couples Almighty and eternal God, You blessed the union of married couples so that they might reflect the union of Christ with his Church: look with kindness on them. Renew their marriage covenant, increase your love in them, and strengthen their bond of peace so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
