O God, who on this day revealed your Only Begotten Son to the nations by the guidance of a star, grant in your mercy that we, who know you already by faith, may be brought to behold the beauty of your sublime glory. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Pastor's Letter

The Star We Follow

"Respice Stella, Voca Mariam." Look to the star, call on Mary. These words of St. Bernard remind us that if we want to find Jesus, we need to look for Mary. The wise men "were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother" (Mt 2:10-11).

Today we celebrate the Epiphany –revelation– of the Lord. The Magi, following the Star, find Jesus Christ, and the glory of the Lord was revealed to them. Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled: "Nations shall walk by your light, kings by the radiance of your dawning" (Is 60:3).

Let's note that the star was seen by so many. Nonetheless, only those three wise men followed it. What about the others? I guess they were busy with other stars and they didn't get interested in this one unique star.

Herod was following the star of power. He wanted power above all. And following this star he slaughtered the Holy Innocents.

The scholars of the law followed the star of honor and comfort. They were able to point to Bethlehem as the place the star was guiding the Magi, but they let the star pass by... Others were busy bodies following their own stars: money, success, fame...

Which is the star we follow?

When all the anxiety of the world Christmas seems to calm down, we can take a breath and see where we are. It is like a canoe in troubled waters. When we reach the bank, we need to rest, let the dizziness go and try to find where we are.

We are still in the Christmas Season. We celebrated the Nativity of the Lord 13 days ago; the Holy Family a week ago; Mary Mother of God, 6 days ago, and next Sunday we will close the Christmas season with the feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

With these celebrations, the Liturgy invites us to meditate on the riches of the mystery of the incarnation. He is the Son of God, the Word made Flesh, the Light of the World. He lived a human life and was part of a family and a neighborhood. To the Magi, He reveals God's universal plan of salvation, calling all the nations to come to him. The Baptism "is the manifestation (Epiphany) of Jesus as Messiah of Israel and Son of God", filled with the Holy Spirit (Catechism of the Catholic Church #535).

When these days I walk early in the morning to the Church, I see the beautiful Morning Star, so bright, in the first light of the dawn. Mary is the Morning Star, the one who leads us to Jesus. Let's follow this star, the star the Magi followed, the star the Saints followed, the star the Lord has given us to make our way to him: Mary.

Family Prayer for the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

Father: Christ has appeared among us.

All: Come, let us adore Him.

Mother: The precious gifts which the Magi brought to the Lord this day are threefold, and they are signs of divine mysteries. By gold the power of the King is signified, by frankincense His great priesthood, by myrrh the burial of the Lord.

All: The Magi worshipped the Author of our salvation in the crib, and of their treasures they brought to Him gifts of mystic nature.

Youngest Child: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

All: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Father: Let us pray. O God, by the leading of a star Thou didst manifest Thine only begotten Son to the Gentiles on this day; mercifully grant that we who know Thee by faith, may be brought to contemplate the beauty of Thy majesty. Through the same Jesus Christ Thy Son.

All: Alleluia.

"It is no magic formula He brings because He knows that the salvation He offers must pass through human hearts. What does He first do? He laughs and cries and sleeps defenseless, as a baby, though He is God incarnate. And He does this, so that we may fall in love with Him, so that we may learn to take Him in our arms..." - St. Josemaria Escriva
