PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus,

On this last weekend of July, the Liturgy of the Word is centered on the food that, grounded in the providence of God, will never be lacking. This Sunday, Jesus multiplies the loaves and fishes presented by a boy that will serve to feed the crowd. Nobody asks Jesus to intervene. It is he, himself, who senses the hunger of those people and decides to feed them; Jesus not only fed people the Good News of God, but he was also concerned about bodily needs.

On this occasion, for Jesus to perform this miracle, someone must share a little of what they have. An unknown boy makes this possible; his availability to share everything he has is the way to feed those people. Jesus will do the rest. He takes the young man's loaves in his hands, gives thanks to God, and begins to "distribute them," and that is where the miracle occurs. I wonder how many miracles we would rob Jesus of if only humanity were more generous and shared food with those who need it. If there is hunger in the world, it is not because of a food shortage but because of a lack of solidarity. Although there is bread for everyone, there is a lack of generosity to share it. Unfortunately, the march of the world is in the hands of inhuman economic power. At the same time, we are afraid to share what we have, and people are starving for the irrational selfishness of this society.

Speaking of the parish events, I want to thank my brothers, Knights of Columbus, and some parishioners that donated for the Altar Servers picnic last Saturday, July 17th. Thank you, Knights, for preparing the burgers and hot dogs. The burgers and hot dogs were very delicious. Thank you so much for all the work done that day. The boys and their families enjoyed it a lot. God bless you for such valuable support to the future Knights of our parish.

Also, I want to thank Seminarian Alfredo Tuesta, who has been working in our parish for the past eight weeks; this week is the last he will be with us. It was very gratifying to have him among us. He did a fantastic apostolic work of spiritual formation. He put a lot of care in the preparation of the intensive course on the Holy Mass, at the same time that he got involved in other areas of our parish; I invite you to come and thank him since it is the last weekend that he will be with us. His last day in the parish will be the 31st of this month. Thank you very much, Alfredo. Remember that this parish will always be your home.

Finally, I thank all those supporting the preparations for our summer festival, some have already returned the tickets sold, and little by little we see the results. I invite you to participate in this parish raffle. At the same time, I ask you to help us as volunteers on the festival day; for this next weekend, we will have some sign-up sheets where you can register and leave your information. Remember that the festival's main objective is to meet again and unite as a family of faith and thus go back to our everyday activities. The festival is like saying: Welcome back to your home!

Thank you so much for being so supportive. I have you in my prayers.

Religious Education Information

We wish our Religious Education families a restful and blessed summer. Classes will resume on September 12, 2021.

We are excited to welcome Clarisa Meza, our new Director of Religious education, to this new experience of Faith! She will be the new point of contact for all parents and catechists.

Register today for the 2021-2022 Religious Education school year! Current Religious Education families are asked to register for the next school year by Aug 1. Stop by the parish office (4329 Sano St), M-F, 9:30am-5pm. or complete the registration form: <https://queenofapostles.org/religious-education/>. The Religious Education Program at Queen of Apostles is available to parish youth in grades kindergarten (age 5) - high school. In-person classes will be held on Sunday mornings, 10:30-11:45am beginning on Sept 12, 2021. Queen of Apostles parishioners and returning students are given priority for Religious Education enrollment. Class size is limited as we balance safety protocols with student learning and faith formation. Non-parishioners will be placed on a wait list until Aug 1, 2021. The registration form and tuition are to be submitted together. Birth and baptismal certificates for new students are to be provided at the time of registration. Because each year builds on the next year of faith formation, students must attend at least two consecutive years of Religious Education before a grade/age-appropriate Sacrament is administered, have no more than three absences during the school year, and score at least 70% on tests. Generally, baptized children receive First Penance/ First Holy Communion in grade 2 and higher and Confirmation is received in grade 8 and higher. A student is to show evidence of desire and preparation for a Sacrament. Families with unbaptized children under the age of 7 years old are to contact the parish office, 703-354-8711 or general@queenofapostles.org. In concert with parents, Religious Education is an opportunity for your child to live the Catholic faith by learning to pray, knowing the Bible, learning Scripture, and preparing for and living the Sacraments.

If your child received a sacrament in 2020-2021, please stop by the parish office to pick up the certificate.

RCIA

RCIA classes in English will be held on Tuesdays, 7-8:30pm starting on Sept 21. RCIA classes in Spanish will be held on Mondays, 7-8:30pm starting on Sept 20.

Altar Servers

The July-Aug schedule has been sent to families. Thank you for your generous response in serving our Lord in the Eucharist. If your son (grade 4 and above) is willing to serve at Holy Mass please contact the Parish Office or Fr. Rampino. He will host another training/refresher class on July 31st at 10 am in the Church. New and seasoned altar servers are welcome. St. John Berchmans and St. St. Tarcisius, pray for us.

Catechist, Aides, and Volunteers for RE

For the 2021-2022 RE school year, we seek practicing Catholics who love the Catholic faith and want to help develop the faith in our youth. As sowers of the Gospel, catechists, aides, substitutes, and volunteers are needed on Sunday mornings for in-person classes. Class time is 75 mins and planning time is about 1-2 hours/week. All are welcome to apply to serve this ministry. We provide you with materials, support, and opportunities to attend Diocesan and parish workshops and obtain certification. Attendance at a Virtus seminar and completion of Virginia Background Check paperwork are required. On Aug 28, Fr. Rampino will lead a workshop for catechists that will review the Pope's recent "motu proprio" and the establishment of the lay ministry of catechist. Please contact the Parish office if you would like to attend. We hope to see you there!

Infant Baptisms

The next date for Infant Baptisms is August 7, 2021 in Spanish. We ask that all necessary requirements be completed by the Tuesday prior to the Baptism. Please complete a registration form, submit a copy of the child's birth certificate, attend a pre-baptismal class, and submit Letters of Eligibility from the godparents' home Parishes. Please visit queenofapostles.org for more information and/or to register.

Joining Our Parish Family

Welcome to Queen of Apostles! We warmly invite you to join our parish family. So that you might receive all of our parish communications, and so that our clergy and staff may respond appropriately to your various sacramental needs, we encourage you to register at Queen of Apostles through the Parish Office or on our website queenofapostles.org. Parish registration forms are available in the Church vestibule and at the Parish Office, located at 4329 Sano Street.

Please notify the Parish Office of any family status changes or if you have moved outside the parish by contacting (703) 354-8711 ext. 10, or general@queenofapostles.org

Festival Raffle Tickets Raffle tickets have been mailed to Parish families! We invite you to be an active part of our first Family Festival by buying or distributing the tickets among family and friends. All the profit is to support our Parish and to continue the important work of evangelizing. The raffle consists of three prizes: $5000, $3000, and $1000. Each ticket costs $5. Regardless of whether or not you participate in the raffle, it is essential that you return the tickets (whether you buy them or not) to the Parish Office as soon as possible so that we can count the number of tickets sold and those not sold. Please fill in your information on the small ticket and keep the large stub to claim your prize (if you win). Tickets can be paid in cash, check, or credit card (with a 3% charge) at the Parish Office. We sincerely appreciate your support to make this fundraising effort a success!

Volunteer to help with the Parish Festival! Our First Family Festival will be a large event that will require many hands and skills to put together. If you would like to volunteer in any capacity, whether it be distribution of tickets, food, setting up, etc., please contact the Parish Office as soon as possible. We sincerely thank those who have worked many hours already to make this event a success!

Gospel Commentary for 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Our Role in His Work

By Fr. Joseph Rampino

Why does God ask us to do anything? This might seem like an odd question, but the Gospel passage we contemplate here, the miracle of the feeding of the five thousand, certainly raises the issue. When the Apostles bring the problem of the hungry crowd to Jesus, the Gospel tells us that “he himself knew what he was going to do.” He already has everything under control, and needs no help to feed the crowds. If He wanted to, Christ could have produced bread out of nothing rather than multiply the little that was at hand and offered. So why does He use the five loaves and two fish? If He doesn’t really need the help, what is the point?

We can sometimes ask the same question in our own spiritual lives. If we cannot live a good Christian life without the help of grace, if faith, hope, and love come from God rather than from us, then wouldn’t it be better for us to become totally passive and have God do all the work? Wouldn’t it be more efficient for God to transform us in holiness all on His own, without the hindrance of our often inconstant, often ineffective, and always imperfect attempts at goodness? There are certainly some Christians, most famously Martin Luther, who believed in this way, teaching that our efforts and works are not capable of producing any good fruit, and that admitting our hopeless state, and surrendering to grace alone is the only way forward for believers.

And yet, the Gospel gives witness that Jesus solicits help. He involves the disciples in perceiving the need for a miracle and leads them to ask for it. He includes the offering of all five loaves and both fish, even though He could have used only one of each, or even nothing to feed His hungry followers. This is also consistent with the way God acts in the rest of the Scriptures. In the Old Testament, He worked signs and wonders against Egypt through Moses. He did not need Moses’ help to liberate Israel, but He chose to work through his frail humanity. In the story of Gideon, God does in fact conquer the enemies of Israel without anyone raising a sword at all, and yet, He demands that the army of Gideon be present to act while He Himself provides the miracle.

The truth is that God delights in including us in His work, and He seeks not only to save us by defending and providing for us, but also be perfecting us from within. God created us because He wanted us to exist and to exist well. He made us simply so that we could enjoy His company, and He could delight in us. He does not save us out of some bare obligation or obsessive need to purify, but out of joy and love. Thus He does not simply cover our sins with grace and do all the work Himself, but takes us up into His works, even though it isn’t necessary, raising us to be more and more like Him. As the best of all parents, He does not simply want to see us obedient for the sake of duty, but wants us to be with Him in everything, loving Him in well-formed freedom, with an understanding of the beauty of His ways and commandments, having been made strong by His help. By offering Him everything have, our gifts, talents, works, struggles, and difficulties, we allow Him into our lives where He longs to work together with us in bringing about wonders of abundant divine transformation.

Have you committed to our Capital Campaign?

There is much to be done to maintain our Parish facilities, and you could help make it all possible. Please prayerfully consider either making a pledge or a one-time gift if you have not already done so. Those who are registered at Queen of Apostles who have not yet pledged will be receiving phone calls from our Continuation Committee to provide more information on how their contributions will help with essential renovations and safety upgrades in our beautiful Church. Installments can be made through Faith Direct, PayPal, and other forms of electronic giving as well as by check. We sincerely thank you for your generosity.

CARTA DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos hermanos en Cristo Jesús,

En este último fin de semana de julio, la Liturgia de la Palabra está centrada en el alimento que cimentado en la providencia de Dios nunca faltará. Este domingo Jesús multiplica los panes y los peces presentados por un muchacho que servirán para alimentar a la muchedumbre. Nadie le pide a Jesús que intervenga. Es él mismo quien intuye el hambre de aquella gente y decide alimentarla; Jesús no solo alimentaba a la gente con la Buena Noticia de Dios, sino que le preocupaba también el hambre corporal.

En esta ocasión para Jesús hacer este milagro, es necesario que alguien comparta un poco de lo que tiene. Un muchacho desconocido, hace que esto sea posible; su disponibilidad para compartir todo lo que tiene es el camino para alimentar a aquellas gentes. Jesús hará lo demás. Toma en sus manos los panes del joven, da gracias a Dios y comienza a "repartirlos" y es ahí donde el milagro se da. Me pregunto, cuantos milagros le robaríamos a Jesús si tan solo la humanidad fuera más generosa y compartiera su alimento con aquellos que lo necesitan. Si hay hambre en el mundo, no es por escasez de alimentos, sino por falta de solidaridad. Hay pan para todos, falta generosidad para compartirlo. Desgraciadamente la marcha del mundo está en manos del poder económico inhumano, al mismo tiempo que nos da miedo compartir lo que tenemos, y la gente se muere de hambre por el egoísmo irracional de esta sociedad.

Hablando del acontecer parroquial, quiero agradecer a mis hermanos Caballeros de Colón por la donación de la comida del picnic que se les preparo a nuestros monaguillos el pasado sábado 17, fueron muy al preparar los hot dog y las hamburguesas, que por cierto estaban muy ricas, mil gracias por todo el trabajo realizado ese día. Los chicos y sus familias disfrutaron bastante. Dios les pague por tan valioso apoyo a los futuros Caballeros de nuestra parroquia.

También, quiero agradecer enfáticamente al Seminarista Alfredo Tuesta, que estuvo trabajando en nuestra parroquia durante 8 semanas, esta semana es la última que estará entre nosotros, de verdad que fue muy gratificante el haberlo tenido entre nosotros, hizo un fantástico trabajo apostólico de formación espiritual, puso mucho esmero en la preparación del curso intensivo sobre la Santa Misa, al mismo tiempo que se involucró en otras áreas de nuestra parroquia; les invito a que se acerquen y lo despidan, ya que es el último fin de semana que estará con nosotros, su ultimo día será el 31 de este mes. Muchas gracias Alfredo, recuerda que esta parroquia siempre será tu casa.

Finalmente, agradezco a todos los que están apoyando los preparativos de nuestro festival de verano, algunos ya han devuelto los tickets vendidos, y poco a poco vamos viendo los resultados, les invito a que participen en esta rifa parroquial, al mismo tiempo les pido que nos ayuden como voluntarios el día del festival, para ello el próximo fin de semana tendremos algunas hojas donde pueden inscribirse y dejar su información. Recuerden que el objetivo principal del festival es que nos reencontremos y nos unamos como familia de fe, y así ir volviendo a la normalidad. El festival es como decir: Bienvenidos nuevamente a su casa...

Gracias por su apoyo, les tengo en mis oraciones.

P. Alex
