Over 170 children and young people, kindergarten through grade 12, attend QofA's Religious Education Program to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. Boldly go and help develop the Catholic faith of our youth by becoming a catechist, aide, or volunteer on Sunday mornings for the Sep. 2019-Jun. 2020 school year! As you nurture the faith, you will learn and grow as well! We provide you with materials, support, and opportunities to attend Diocesan workshops. Attendance at a Virtus seminar and completion of Virginia Background Check paperwork are required. If interested, please contact Susan Gray at (703) 354-8711 or s.gray@queenofapostles.org.

*I give you a new commandment, says the Lord:

(Note early bulletin deadline for Jun. 2 due to Memorial Day.) Please email announcements to Mayra Saunders at m.saunders@queenofapostles.org.

Religious Education The Religious Education registration for public school and homeschool students in kindergarten (age 5) - high school is now open! Parents of current students can pick up the registration form on-site during RE class time. Tuition for parish members is $70 for 1 child; $120 for 2 children and $150 for 3 children in the same family. The tuition payment by cash or check is expected at the time of registration.

Religious Education classes are on Sundays, 9-10:15 am. The first day of class is Sep. 8.

Because each year builds on the next year of faith formation, students must attend at least 2 consecutive years of Religious Education before a Sacrament is administered and have no more than three absences during the school year. Generally, baptized children receive First Penance/First Holy Communion in grade 2 and higher and Confirmation is received in grade 8 and higher. A student is show evidence of desire and preparation for a Sacrament.

New students need to provide birth and baptismal certificates to register. Parents of unbaptized children under the age of 5 are asked to contact the parish office.

Attention Class of 2019 This summer, the Associates of St. John Bosco will be hosting four College Nights throughout the Arlington Diocese for graduated high-schoolers headed to college in the fall. The dates and locations are as follows. All events are from 7-9 pm.

Jun. 19: St. Mark's in Vienna

Jul. 1: All Saints in Manassas

Jul. 17: Basilica of St. Mary in Alexandria

Jul. 24: St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception in Fredericksburg.

The purpose of these free events is to help students keep their faith while transitioning into college. Catholic college students from George Mason, Mary Washington, UVA, Virginia Tech, William & Mary and others will be in attendance to meet students and share their experiences of being a Catholic college student. It's a wonderful chance to meet fellow peers going to your school before even stepping foot onto campus! Free dinner with registration and the chance to win door prizes! Student registration can be found by visiting this link: www.asib.org. Registration is limited to 50 students per night.

Pastor's Letter

The Commandment of Love

In the Passion's portico, after washing the disciples' feet, Jesus invites them to imitate him in his service and his sacrificial love. In this context Jesus gives the apostles the supreme law of the New Covenant: "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another" (Jn 13:34).

God is love (1 Jn 4:8.16). As the Father loved Jesus, he also loved us (Jn 15:9). And we, as disciples, are commanded to love one another as Jesus loved us. The sexual revolution and our culture have exalted love as a supreme value. But it is clear that we mean very different things when we talk about love. What is love? Is there a truth about love? Benedict XVI devoted his first encyclical God is Love to explore this question. This letter has a humbler scope but you can always profit from reading Benedict XVI. So, what is love?

There is a first response: love, in this first definition, is the exercise of sexual intimacy, and there is some truth about it. Man and woman give themselves to each other in marriage out of love. That conjugal love is expressed and put into action in their intimacy. Yes, this is love, and a sacramental and holy love.

Now, let's note that conjugal love is very different from pornography, self-gratification, prostitution or free sex. These expressions of the male and female sexuality are not real love, even if our culture exalts them as means of self-actualization. They are everywhere around us and we know how difficult it is to stay far from them. But they are lies which destroy the ability to understand love and to live it.

There is a second response, and also true: love is to sacrifice for the one you love: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" (Jn 15:13). However, as Pope Benedict teaches, love is not only sacrificial, oblation love. True love is the unity of eros and agape because the gift of love is aimed at communion. If there is no communion of persons, love has not achieved its perfection.

Finally, God is love. This is the supreme truth of love, the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit. And when Jesus commands us to love as he loved us, he is introducing us into the divine love which we call Charity.

Love is a gift we receive. And because we are loved we can love. This is a basic experience in human life: we are loved by our parents and family, and therefore we learn to love them back. This happens in a supreme way in our baptism. We are loved by God and given the Holy Spirit to live in communion with him.

I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you. This is the truth of love. May the Holy Spirit we receive in this Easter time teach us how to love like Jesus, in full truth, with divine love.

*I will praise your name for ever,
my king and my God.*

Divine Mercy

“I remind you, My daughter, that as often as you hear the clock strike the third hour, immerse yourself completely in My mercy, adoring and glorifying it; invoke its omnipotence for the whole world, and particularly for poor sinners; for at that moment mercy was opened wide for every soul. In this hour you can obtain everything for yourself and for others for the asking; it was the hour of grace for the whole world — mercy triumphed over justice.”

(Jesus to Saint Faustina, Diary 1572)
