Pastor's Letter

The Big Human Questions

Last Sunday Jesus was asked about the greatest commandment. If we know the life of the Jewish People, it makes sense. They had so many precepts that sometimes they were lost in so many rules.

For our own modern lives, there are also so many requests, expectations... we are pulled in so many directions. So I would like to ask which are the big human questions. Not little things. Those which really matter.

The month of November is devoted to the memory of the Souls in Purgatory. We visit their graves, we offer Masses and prayers for them. Let's ask the question: why? Some will do it as part of a family tradition. However, what does this tradition have to do with our Catholic faith, with our profession of faith that we renew every Sunday?

And this brings us to other big questions in our lives. Maybe you would try to write them down in a paper. I guess it would look like: Which College will my child attend? How will I advance in my career? How will I pay the bills, especially if I am retired?

There are other questions that we realize are not so important, and nonetheless we give them so much time, thought and energy. When will the latest smartphone be released? What shows are on tonight? Who will win the Super Bowl?

Now, imagine yourself near a close relative's grave. Which questions make sense there? Maybe in that setting, those are the big human questions... the questions which make my life more human and greater. What beauty, truth and goodness did this person bring to my own life and the lives of those around me? These are questions which give meaning and purpose. Those are the big questions, the questions that are relevant for the hereafter.

The Church invites in these last weeks of Ordinary Time to consider the last things: death, judgement, purgatory, hell, heaven... It would be very convenient to remind ourselves the Church's teachings on them, maybe in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Also we can make other big questions, looking up to Jesus on the Cross and consider how he redeemed us through suffering, death, service... What is the purpose of suffering, failure, disabilities...? Our culture has no answer to these questions. The Gospel does. Do we dare to ask?

Nourishing Our Souls With Holy Scripture

Readings for Next Week

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dn 12:1-3 Ps 16:5, 8, 9-10, 11
Heb 10:11-14, 18 Mk 13:24-32

Coats for Kids Drive Nearly 20% percent of American children live in poverty and as a result, many families cannot afford to provide the basic necessity of a warm winter coat. Putting our faith into action, your Knights of Columbus Council, Pope John Paul II 4522 will be again collecting cash/check donations for the annual Coats for Kids Drive this weekend. We need to raise $1,200 to order a case (the minimum order) of winter coats — we're just halfway there. As little as $20 will provide a child with a new winter coat, but any donation is greatly appreciated.

QofA School Open House Join Queen of Apostles Catholic School for their Open House on Tuesday, Nov. 12 through Friday, Nov. 16, from 9-11 am.

Dr. Henry is a Psychiatrist and she will be speaking on "The best thing about getting older". All parishioners are cordially invited.

The Knights will pray for and remember those Council Knights that have joined the Lord this past year. This is a full Mass, led by SK Fr. Vives. All parishioners are invited to attend!

Praise the Lord, my soul!
